Subject: Celebrating Celebs, Royalties

Dear Author,

What do Olympic gold winner Latasha Colander Clark, Vanilla Fudge musician Bill Pascali, Walker Texas Ranger actress Marcia Miles, Rockabilly Hall of Fame member Ronnie Sando, rock group The Myriad musician John Schofield, founding father of house music Jesse Saunders, five time Emmy Award winner Sid Feders, Broadway actor Ronald Smokey Stevens, Sound of Music celebrity Agatha Von Trapp, Disney animator Glen W. Hill, Pulitzer Prize Winner William Coughlin, and others have in common? They are some of your celebrity peers at PublishAmerica.

There appears to be a trend in writers land lately for achievers who have been famously successful in other ventures to come and join you as a PublishAmerica author. We welcome this trend, and we welcome these authors. They come here because they know that being published by PublishAmerica is the real deal, that it comes with quality exposure, and that they join a true legion of other high achievers such as yourself.

On that note, your February royalty statements are in the process of being finalized. They will be dropped in the mail by Friday. Depending on where you reside, and on the US Postal Service, you may expect yours on your doorstep between sometime next week and two weeks from now. If you have not received your statement/check by March 15, please contact us at that time at royalties@publishamerica.com.

Finally, here is February's special offer for those of you who want to keep copies of their book on hand.

- * To those who order between 5 - 50 copies: we offer 40 pct discount, plus AGAIN we pay royalties;
- * 51 - 100 copies: 45 pct discount, plus we pay royalties;
- * 101 or more copies: 50 pct discount, plus we pay royalties.

Phone orders only, at 301 695-1707, between 9am - 8pm EST. Offer expires February 29. Sorry, hardcover books excluded, but fullcolor books are included!

Thank you.
