"I am so humbled that you choose my book "A Unique Bunny" for your uplift week. You have been the best in my book always for publishing.

I am so grateful for the friend of an acquaintance who had passed away about she had first told me about Publish America. Then the acquaintance herself or she had also been published by your great team and to give you a try. I have published by you and the experience has been so remarkable and rewarding

It has been a true blessing to have met some of the other talented and creat from this site and also in groups such as Florida Writer's Association, Wizard a new Writer's Christian group forming in the West Coast of Florida area.

Through all of the ups and downs, laughs and tears, this has been the most experience in my life.

Thank you Publish America for giving me a chance. Thank you for allowing my most precious dream come true.

To all inspiring authors--never give up. For me time, patience and Faith in God the most humbling growth. There is always a spark of light even in the dark. Never give up. Never allow anyone to snatch or stomp your dreams away. Ignore negatives and know that God (or whatever your faith is) is there standing by in your worth--who you are--who you are ment to be. We all have a purpose ministry and to give hope, faith and love to those who are hurting.

Always remember WORDS ARE POWERFUL.

I wish all of my fellow authors and friends the best. Being an author has been knowledge. There was a time when I would feel sad if my royalty check was isn't about the money. It's about the growth and learning of who we are and I stand in my faith. The friends that have been made are priceless. Believing (PA) that some trashed was worth sticking through it, because Publish America made some errors (as humans we do), but it cares about it's authors. In the that I have known them they have always been kind and considerate. Many has more patience then ever imagined. Blessings to all of you.

I am so blessed today. Thank you again PA. You are my first love and where takes me on this quest as an author...you will NEVER be forgotten."
